COE Expands our Leadership With Sean McPhilomy as Managing Director

COE is excited to announce that Sean McPhilomy has joined our team as Managing Director of Client Services.

Sean comes to us with more than 20 years of experience leading management consulting services with federal government clients, helping them achieve organizational efficiency and effectiveness. He has held previous Vice President and Managing Director roles in companies serving the federal government and has a history of building strong client and staff relationships. His knowledge of the market and COE's services will strengthen our role as trusted advisors for our clients, and his passion for serving the federal government contributes to our dedication to the American people.

"Sean will be a strong contributor to serving our clients and achieving our aggressive growth plans," says Steve Goodrich, COE's President and CEO. "We are excited to have Sean join our leadership team as he has hit the ground running making contributions right away, as we enter the government's fourth quarter."

We invite you all to reach out to Sean and wish him well on his COE journey at Sean.McPhilomy@center4oe.com.
